A NEW MILESTONE in U. S. commercial aviation will be reached on June 17 when a 44-passenger, 10,000-horsepower Pan American Airways Constellation of the type shown at top will leave New York City on the first flight of a scheduled weekly round-the-world service. The route covers 21,426 miles (map, center) and makes the U. S. the first country to provide a round-the-world service. Up to the present, a passenger on such a flight would have to make numerous changes from one airline to another. To what degree commercial aviation has progressed in the last 20 years is indicated on the map where an arrow shows the first scheduled commercial overwater route—the 90-mile stretch between Key West, Fla., and Havana, Cuba—flown by an American plane. At bottom is the 8-passenger Fokker that made the flight.

Three Suspects Held In Shooting At Adelphi

Authorities rounded up three of four men today who allegedly attempted the burglary of an Adelphi cafe and shot and wounded a tent show operator when he interrupted them.

Frank Barton, 50, Adelphi, the operator of the show, was reported in fair condition in Chillicothe hospital with bullet wounds in the right chest and right shoulder. He was placed in an oxygen tent.

The wounded man told police he was carrying a revolver as he counted his day's receipts. His work was interrupted when he heard a noise in the cafe of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Katherine Spain, across the street.

Investigating, he found four men moving cigars and cases of beer into a truck. While he talked to one of the quartet whom he recognized, another grabbed his revolver and shot him, according to Barton's account.

James E. Collier, 25, route 1, Londonderry, telephoned authorities and then surrendered voluntarily at Adelphi. James Willard Walraven, 19, identified as an escapee from the Orient school for the feeble-minded, and his brother, Philip, 17, both of Londonderry, were picked up later. All three were held for investigation in the Ross county jail.

Meanwhile, authorities searched the hills of Ross and Hocking counties for the fourth suspect, Floyd Leroy Richards, 25. The state highway patrol said that he was armed and dangerous.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By Walter Kierman

There still is hope of reaching Mars by radio—In the past few days calls got through to Mt. McKinley and Molotov.

Molotov's caller described himself as "a little man from Iowa." I understand Molotov said "I thought you were out making speeches!"

Anyway reports from the sick bay are encouraging. Winnie Churchill is able to sit up and eat a cigar and Bob Hannegan is shopping for a baseball team. Hannegan was taken ill early in Mr. Truman's administration—reportedly from something he got out of the White House cabinet.

Robert has been almost as quiet in the years he has been Democratic chairman as Jim Farley has been in the years since he hasn't been.

It's nice to see them both active again—Hannegan looking for a pennant and Farley looking for a publisher.

Thatcher Man Killed In Crash

SEVEN PERSONS HURT IN 5-CAR SMASHUP ON 23

Orpheus Chaffin, 26, Dies Almost Instantly In Unusual Accident

Orpheus Chaffin, 26, Route 4, Circleville, was killed, and seven other persons were injured, in a traffic crash at 8:45 p. m. Sunday on U. S. Route 23, nine miles south of Circleville in Ross county near the Pickaway county line.

Five cars were involved in the fatal accident. Mr. Chaffin was killed almost instantly. His injuries included a neck fracture and a crushed chest.

THE INJURED: Mrs. Martha Chaffin, 26, and Judith Ann Chaffin, 4; Herbert Pierce, 38, and Mrs. Martha Pierce, 34, Columbus, and their three children, Robert, 14, Mary, 9, and Annette, 12.

In an attempt to fix responsibility for the five-car crash state highway patrolmen from the Chillicothe post conducted an all night search and Monday morning took into custody Earl Pettiford, 36, Route 2, Chillicothe.

Pettiford was being questioned early Monday afternoon and at that time no formal charge had been filed against him.

THE BODY of Mr. Chaffin was removed to the Whittell-Root funeral home at Chillicothe.

After receiving emergency treatment in the Chillicothe hospital Mrs. Chaffin and Judith Ann were removed to the home of the child's grandmother, Mrs. James Elliott, Chillicothe.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce and their son, Robert, were removed to Berger hospital, Circleville, where X-rays were taken Monday to determine the extent of their injuries. The other Pierce children, Mary and Annette, were given first aid at the Chillicothe hospital and were then removed to the home of their uncle, Elmer Ziesler, Chillicothe jeweler.

MR. CHAFFIN operated a garage at the village of Thatcher and he was widely known, especially among farmers for whom he did considerable repairing of tractors and other farm machinery.

Highway patrolmen reported that the five-car accident occurred as follows:

Pettiford was driving south. His car sideswiped the north-bound auto of Charles Chandler, 32, of Hilliard, and the Pettiford machine then sideswiped the car of E. Robert Soustin, Columbus, which also was traveling north. The Pettiford car then struck the south-bound Chaffin machine which was hurled headon against the north-bound Pierce car.

OHIO COLLEGES STILL ACCEPTING FALL STUDENTS

BOWLING GREEN, O., June 16—Almost two out of three of Ohio's half-hundred colleges and universities are still accepting enrollments for the Fall quarter.

The Ohio college association reported today on a survey made on reports that the institutions were "full up." Of 41 colleges reporting, only 14 had reached capacity in enrollment and 22 in housing.

"Despite rumors to the contrary, high school graduates may still enroll in Ohio colleges for the coming year," commented Dr. K. H. McFall, guidance director of Bowling Green State university and survey committee chairman.

River Drops After Going To 15 Feet

Another flood threat was subsiding Monday and Pickaway farmers were anxiously waiting sunshine to dry out fields. The Scioto river dropped slowly after reaching a 15-foot high Sunday. Monday morning the river was still over 14 feet and many lowlands were covered.

Forecasters said the cool temperatures of the last two days would continue Monday night with "fair and a little fare."

Sunday the official thermometer got only as high as 71.

Forecasters said that temperatures this afternoon over Ohio would range between 68 and 78 degrees and that the low readings tonight would be between 48 and 55 degrees. Tomorrow afternoon's range was set at between 74 and 82 degrees.

RUSSIA BLAMED BY FORRESTAL

Navy Secretary Says Soviet Union Blocked Efforts For Axis Treaties

WELLESLEY, Mass., June 16—Secretary of Navy Forrestal today charged Russia with blocking Secretary of State Marshall's efforts to write peace treaties with Germany and the axis satellite nations.

Forrestal's assertion came in a speech prepared for delivery at Wellesley college graduation exercises.

The cabinet member stressed the need for peace treaties, and said:

"Secretary Marshall did his best to attack these problems in Moscow last winter, but he was blocked by Russia. He will renew his efforts next November."

Forrestal declared that failure of the world to find peace in the past two years creates and aggravates fears of a third world conflict.

He added, however, that there are many indications that such fears are groundless and that the world can truly hope for future peace.

Forrestal asserted that among the hopeful signs are the United States' determined efforts to continue international cooperation through the United Nations and the freeing of India by Great Britain. But he added:

"At no time in history has there been a greater basis for a pessimistic and skeptical view of the future. Wherever one looks there is trouble and uncertainty."

RUSSIA REJECTS DEMANDS FOR HUNGARY PROBE

WASHINGTON, June 16—The state department today acknowledged receipt of a Soviet rejection to the U. S.-British demand for a three-power investigation of the recent pro-Communist coup d'etat in Hungary.

Lincoln White, a state department spokesman, said the note is being studied, but declined to predict what the next step will be. The United States note implied that the case might be carried to the United Nations.

MEASURE SAID UNFAIR, UNSAFE BY PRESIDENT

Message To Congress Says Slash Would Increase Inflationary Pressure

WASHINGTON, June 16—President Truman today vetoed the four billion dollar GOP tax reduction bill as an unfair and unsafe measure favoring high income groups.

The chief executive declared in a veto message to congress that tax reduction is not justified. He emphasized:

"Despite many gloomy predictions, there is no convincing evidence that a recession is imminent."

He asserted that a tax slash would increase inflationary pressures. He added:

"If these pressures are long continued, and if essential readjustments within the price structure are long deferred, we are likely to induce the very recession we seek to avoid."

THE HOUSE is expected to override the veto tomorrow, but the senate, which acts on the veto Wednesday, is expected to sustain it.

Mr. Truman in refusing to approve the bill, asserted that reductions in income tax rates are not needed to permit necessary business and investment expansion.

He declared that liquid funds in the hands of corporations and individuals now total nearly 200 billion dollars. The President outlined a three-point program for eventual tax readjustment.

HE CALLED FOR:

1. Plans for a thoroughgoing revision of the tax system.
2. Reduction of the public debt to as great a degree as possible.
3. Reduction of prices as a barrier against inflation and depression.

Mr. Truman told congress that the tax reduction bill which would affect the incomes of 48 million Americans is "the wrong kind of tax reduction. At the wrong time."

He said:

"IT OFFERS dubious, ill-apportioned, and risky benefits at the expense of a sound tax policy and is, from the standpoint—(Continued on Page Two)"

ATLANTIC, GULF COASTS TIED UP BY NEW STRIKE

NEW YORK, June 16—Shipping was paralyzed along the Atlantic and gulf coasts today by a work stoppage of 200,000 CIO seamen and longshoremen.

The joint policy committee of five CIO unions directed members to remain on ships but to do no work.

This was a strategic move, in the expectation that the men would be ordered off the ships, so that the unions might claim a "lockout" by operators and ship owners.

Union agents said that 150 ships were tied up in New York, 40 in Philadelphia, 40 in Baltimore, four in Boston, and one in Portland, Me. In Houston, Tex., 1,000 men quit work after midnight.

Three American ships managed to get away from New York early this morning. They were the Liberty ship Richard N. Johnson, Andalein and Empire Roding, all apparently sailing with a full complement of men.

Governor Herbert Fares Well In First Session With Ohio Legislature

COLUMBUS, O., June 16—Governor Herbert boasted a pretty fair legislative batting average today, but it took a barrage of hits in the last inning to keep him in the gubernatorial big league.

As the Ohio assembly worked all night Saturday with covered clocks and until 7:22 a. m. yesterday to finish its business for the year, it completed action on the following bills to fatten the prestige of the chief executive:

A $547,000,000 general appropriations bill;

A $70,297,000 postwar improvements bill;

A quarter-of-a-million-dollar bill to pay 84 miscellaneous claims against the state;

An 86 million-dollar-a-year school aid bill;

A bill to regulate strip mining;

A bill to ban strikes by all public employees, including school teachers;

Two bills providing pay raises for elective officials and appointive state officials;

Three bills to create university housing commissions, renew the post-war program commission, and create a commission to select and purchase a state fairgrounds site for not more than $500,000, and

A bill authorizing the state to accept Fletcher General hospital from the federal government.

THREE DOZEN hits shared the ninth-inning spotlight with defeat of a bill to permit the sale of colored oleomargarine in Ohio; the passage by the narrowest of margins in both houses of the Van Aken bill to curb the practices of labor unions, and a bill cutting employers' contributions to the state unemployment compensation fund by some 30 million dollars a year.

Somebody else was at bat on those measures, however, as

HOUSEWIVES TO CONTINUE JOB OF MIXING OLEO

COLUMBUS, O., June 16—Ohio housewives must continue to color their own margarine as the bill to legalize the sale of colored oleo died in the house in the most farcical session of the 97th Ohio general assembly.

The bill, which previously had been passed by the city-minded senate, was tabled by a 67-52 vote in the rural-dominated house on the last working day of the session.

A few of the speakers tried to stick to their subject seriously, but it was just no go. Rep. Floyd Griffin (R-Allen) had the members screaming with laughter as he deplored, in ludicrous verse, the plight of the farmer. Rep. Paul Ballard (R-Jackson) usually one of the more-serious minded members, interrupted Griffin by parading to and back from the rostrum with a huge American flag.

Rep. Don M. Duncan (R-Adams) proposed an amendment to permit oleo be colored, not yellow, but "chocolate, strawberry or vanilla, like ice cream." The amendment came within a whisper of being adopted, but Speaker William O'Neill ruled it lost out on a voice vote.

As chants came from the rear of the chamber that "we want margarine," a motion to table was carried on a 67-52 roll call vote.

161-ACRE BODY OF WATER TO BE WAR MEMORIAL

400-Acre Playground Area At Devils' Backbone To Be Developed By State

Pickaway county will have a lake sometime in the near future. Three years of work to get the proposed memorial lake in the Devil's Backbone area was rewarded over the weekend when the Ohio legislature appropriated $150,000 to finance the project.

Senators Evert Addison and Roscoe Walcutt and Representative H. E. Louis sponsored the bill in the assembly which would provide funds to buy land and build a dam. Funds were appropriated when the state's lawmakers finally approved the $70,290,000 postwar improvements measure.

Present plans call for a lake which will cover 161 acres. Options are held on 400 acres of land and all of this will be used in the park which will be built around the lake.

Options will be taken up by the conservation department and land purchased from the owners.

PLANS CALL for a changing of roads in that area and the establishment of a large recreation area. On parts of the 400 acres not covered by the lake will be new roads, picnic grounds with tables, outdoor furnaces, places for various outdoor activities, buildings and other improvements.

The lake itself will be stocked with fish and can be used for boating. In the winter ice skating and other cold weather sport are expected.

Walter Richards, president of the Pickaway County Farmers and Sportsmen association, has been active in recent efforts to get the state funds for the lake. The organization started the project and various members have been active in working to get the lake built.

L. H. MEBS was the leader of the first definite drive to get the lake built. He interested various civic groups and got pledges of cooperation from the conservation department in planning and building the project.

Later the Pickaway County Memorial association was formed and this group started work to secure the lake as a living memorial to residents of the county who died during service in World War II. This body secured options on the land and kept up contacts with state officials in an effort to get the project approved.

12 KILLED IN B-29 CRASH INTO VERMONT MOUNT

SPRINGFIELD, Vt., June 16—Army officials today began an investigation to determine the cause of a B-29 Superfortress crash into the side of Hawks mountain early Sunday morning.

Other than the fact that the huge craft was winging through a torrential rainstorm, there was no explanation at this time to account for the plane being so far off its course.

The plane, based at Tucson, Ariz., had refueled at Pittsburgh on a training flight that was to take it to Bedford, Mass.

Lieut. Joseph Lioni, medical corps officer, placed the number of dead at 11. However, an Army spokesman reported late last night that 12 instead of 11 might have been killed in the crash. The bodies of the flyers were so mutilated and burned that at first it was believed there were only eight aboard the plane.

OHIO SCHOOLS GET RECORD AID

Assembly Votes $86,000,000 Per Year In State Assistance Funds

COLUMBUS, O., June 16—Ohio schools will get an all-time record high state aid grant of 86 million dollars for each school year.

That was the figure arrived at by a senate-house conference committee which reported the compromise between house and senate to the Ohio legislature just minutes before the lawmakers went home at 7:22 a. m. yesterday after waiting all night for the report.

The report was submitted bitterly to the house by Rep. William Manahan (R-Defiance) who assailed the senate conferees for their reliance on school lobbyists.

"It's pretty difficult for a house committee of three members to compete with a senate committee of four," he stated.

"Not one proposal was made but that a senate member had to leave the room and consult with the secretary of the Ohio Education association, to find out what to do. I have never seen a man so brazenly interfere with the operations of any committee."

The school aid bill had been (Continued on Page Two)

STATE'S LARGE SURPLUS SLATED TO SHRINK FAST

COLUMBUS, O., June 16—Ohio's vaunted treasury surplus, which once approached the 200 million dollar mark, approached the vanishing point today as the Ohio legislature wound up its year's work appropriating all but four million dollars.

The appropriations bill, which came out of a house-senate conference, carried some 547 million dollars for the state's operation in 1947 and 1948, including 25 millions for a first payment on a soldier bonus if one is approved in November by the voters.

The postwar improvements bill, boosted from the house-approved $64,672,000 to $71,297,000 by the senate and then passed 32-0, was accepted by the house at that figure. In addition, it appropriates some 59 millions of unexpected balances originally allocated for capital improvements two years ago.

Rep. Paul Ballard (R-Jackson) chairman of the house finance committee, said that, with other appropriations, there would be only about four millions left.

point of government finances, unsafe."

Mr. Truman said that the reduction measure is inflationary and that reductions in income taxes are not now necessary to permit business expansion.

He declared there is no shortage of funds for business needs throughout most of the nation's economy.

The chief executive also emphasized that the tax reduction bill, as passed by congress, "is not the proper way" to remedy either the current price situation, or improve the effect of current high prices upon consumers and upon employment.

TRUMAN NAMES FIVE MEN TO MAKE AIR PROBE

WASHINGTON, June 16—The full power of the United States government was thrown behind the newly-appointed Truman air safety board today in its mission to end the deadly toll of aviation disasters.

President Truman named five of the nation's top aviation experts to conduct the safety inquiry, about 48 hours after a Capital airliner crashed into a Virginia mountainside with a toll of 50 lives.

This crash brought the nation's aerial death toll to 146 for a 15 day period and to 244 in six recent major disasters.

The president named James M. Landis, civil aeronautics board chairman, to head the special board. Other members are Dr. Jerome C. Hunsaker, chairman, national advisory committee for aeronautics; Brig. Gen. Milton W. Arnold of the Air Transport association; civil aeronautics administrator Theodore P. Wright, and H. B. Cox, veteran pilot of the Air Line Pilots' association.

The board meets tomorrow to organize and draft a campaign for bringing safety to American airways.

HERBERT SHOULD be credited also with hits on his bills to increase the membership of the board of agriculture from 10 to 12 and to reorganize the fire marshal's office. But he struck out in his attempt to transfer the development and publicity commission to the department of commerce. He likewise fanned on his proposal to substitute a racing commissioner for the four-member racing commission.

He was tossed out on his losing proposals to establish a unified conservation department and to provide for urban redevelopment, both of which got through the senate but were killed in the house.

Herbert said before he went into office that he considered public salaries too low. Hence he must be given credit for pay raises to appointive state officials averaging 33 per cent; county elective officials averaging 30 per cent, nearly all judges, election booth workers (although their increase was in an election revision bill), and state employees.

The bill passed early Sunday to increase the salary of state elective officials would not be effective until the beginning of the next term. It would raise the salary of the governor from $10,000 to $13,000; of the lieutenant governor from $3,000 to $4,000; of the secretary of state, the auditor, the treasurer and the attorney general from $6,500 to $8,500, and of the lawmakers themselves from $2,000 to $2,600.

Thieves who committed two thefts Saturday were being sought Monday by police.

Cecil Hatfield complained that $300 in currency was stolen from a billfold Saturday night in his grocery store at 357 East Ohio street. He said the money was in one, five, and ten dollar bills.

Mrs. George Skipper, Columbus, operator of a gift shop at 110 South Court street, reported the theft of her pocketbook containing about $6 in currency and coins, a vendor's license, set of keys, and other articles including a small Bible.

WALLACE WILL WAIT AND SEE ON THIRD TERM

Anti-Communist Group Tries To Bar Speech By Former Vice President

WASHINGTON, June 16—Henry Agard Wallace clung to a "wait and see" policy on his future plans today as he invaded President Truman's "backyard" in his campaign to "liberalize the Democratic party."

The former vice president will speak tonight at the government-owned Watergate, along the Potomac, not far from the White House, unless a district court during the day prohibits his use of federal property.

The American anti-Communist association is seeking an injunction to compel Secretary of Interior Krug to withdraw his consent for use of the Watergate. The association condemned Wallace for his attacks on President Truman's foreign policies and charged the sponsor of his speech, the Southern Conference for Human Welfare, is a Communist-front organization.

The anti-Communist organization cited an attack on the Wallace sponsoring group by the house committee on un-American activities. The house committee charged the sponsoring group as being "perhaps the most deviously camouflaged Communist-front" in the nation.

AT A SUNDAY news conference, Wallace sidestepped all questions about his 1948 plans either to run against President Truman in Democratic primaries or against him on a "liberal third party" ticket. At one point, however, he left the door open to lead a third party next year "in the interest of peace."

Wallace resumed his attacks on the presidential foreign program by charging the "Truman doctrine and reactionaries are the best friends the Communist have."

HE DECLARED Russia's seizure of Hungary was no more important than American-British domination of Greece. He added:

"The really important and war-breeding spot in Europe is Turkey, the queen in the game for Saudi-Arabian oil. The United States and Great Britain would fight the moment red forces got into central Turkey with tanks and parachutists and menaced Saudi-Arabian oil."

Under questioning by newsmen, Wallace first said the United States and Britain "should" fight Russia if the Soviets invaded Turkey. He promptly amended this to say he thought they "would". He called "should" too strong a word and "warlike talk" which he sought to avoid.

GARDEN BRIEFS

Start staking all tall plants in borders. Remember that the art of staking lies in supporting the plant without making the stake too evident. Use soft cord and don't bind it too tight.

If you have any transplanting to do, choose a cool, cloudy afternoon, water well before lifting and after planting and shade the plants for the first few hours to prevent wilting.

Asparagus should not be cut after late June. As soon as the cutting season is over give the bed a liberal top-dressing of well-rotted manure and spray the foliage with arsenate of lead to prevent its destruction by the asparagus beetle.

As hot weather sets in, elevate the blades of your lawn mower so that they do not cut grass so short.

Water all newly transplanted trees, shrubs and perennials. Mulch the ground around Rhododendrons and Azaleas with leafmold, peat or grass clippings.

Cultivate rose beds to reduce rose bugs. Dust or spray rose foliage every 10 days to check mildew and blackspot.

Red Blood Cells Must Be Kept Up If You Want To Feel Alive

Thousands Now Regaining Old Time Pep, Vigor and Drive By Releasing Vibrant Energy To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Overwork, undue worry, and lack of certain foods often reduces the red-blood strength—and starved, weak, puny blood just hasn't the power to keep up your energy and drive.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

YOUR NEW REGULAR ARMY WANTS YOU TO KNOW HOW VOLUNTEERS ARE SELECTED

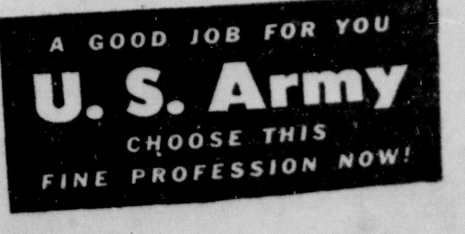

Would it surprise you to know that only about 60 out of every 100 volunteers for the new Regular Army can measure up to today's requirements for a soldier?

Only the top 60% of American youth—mentally, morally and physically—can pass the rigid tests.

There are reasons for this which your Army wants you to know:

- The men we send overseas must represent you to millions of people who are struggling towards democracy. They must be typical of our best.
  - The truly modern Army requires a far higher type of soldier than ever before. The wide use of scientific material and the broad program of research necessitate a superior man. Your Army must lead the world in the caliber of its men if it is to provide adequate defense in the atomic age.
- These are reasons why Army enlistment standards today are higher than ever before—why your new Regular Army, although comparatively small in size—is performing its world-wide duties well.
- In Japan, for example, ours is the smallest occupation force per capita in world history—yet there is no record of greater achievement in such a short space of time.
- If you can measure up to these standards, you will find enlistment in the new Regular Army a good career. You will live and work with friends whom you will value always. You will have opportunity for travel and high adventure, and a chance to qualify for Officer Candidate Schools and Technical Schools. Above all, you will have the deep satisfaction of doing an important job for your country.
- Ask at any U. S. Army Recruiting Station about the many opportunities open to men who volunteer for three years.

In fact, their anxiety may only increase their heart symptoms, according to Dr. George F. Strong of Vancouver, B. C., many heart manifestations may be due to nervous tension.

There are other conditions which may cause similar symptoms, sometimes with heart damage, such as an increase in the amount of secretion from the thyroid gland, early tuberculosis of the lungs, rheumatic fever and undulant fever. However, by means of careful examination, it is possible to tell neurocirculatory asthenia from these other condi-

According to Dr. Strong, the main thing in treating neurocirculatory asthenia is to rid the patient's mind of the fear that his symptoms are an indication of heart disease. This of course requires that the patient have confidence in his physician.

Quieting the Nerves

Other things which are helpful in the treatment of neurocirculatory asthenia are the use of barbiturates which act to quiet the nerves and which, of course, should be taken under the direction of a physician and in the amount which he prescribes.

Miss Mary Ellen Root, Eugene Thurston Wed

Marriage Performed In Presbyterian Church Here

Soft candlelight radiated from five seven-branched candelabra amidst a background of verdant huckleberry foliage for the wedding of Miss Mary Ellen Root and Eugene Calvin Thurston, Saturday at 8:30 p. m. in the Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Donald E. Mitchell, pastor, and the Rev. William G. Kuhn, pastor of the Riverside drive Presbyterian church, Columbus, officiated for the impressive double ring ceremony, before the altar adorned in urns filled with white sprays of delphinium, gladiol and asters.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Chauncey Root, Walnut street. Bridegroom is the son of Mrs. C. A. Houghton, Hollywood, Florida, and the late Rev. R. E. Thurston.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father the bride approached the chancel down the white carpeted aisle where each pew was marked by bows of white satin ribbon. She chose for her wedding a traditional white dutchess satin gown. The fitted seed pearl bodice was accentuated by a V neckline, held in place by pearl clips. Long full sleeves came to points over her hands. Scalloped detail defined the low waistline, with a full skirt sweeping into a wide cathedral train. Sheerest illusion edged in Chantilly lace fell from a heart shaped tiara of seed pearls.

She carried a purple throated white orchid surrounded by a ring of white shattered carnations, arranged on top of a white Bible with streamers of white ribbons tied with gold rings falling in a cascade. Her only jewelry was a gold chain necklace which had been in the Root family for six generations. Following the tradition of something old, she carried a sheer white handkerchief carried by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. William Miller, for her wedding 50 years ago.

Miss Geraldine Dunmeyer, Cleveland, was maid of honor in a poudre blue faille formal gown, with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, a bouffant skirt and bustle back. She carried a cascade bouquet of shattered yellow carnations interspersed with ivy.

BRIDESMAIDS were Miss Susanna Schlatter, Archbold, and Miss Dorris Riffe, Circleville. They wore identical gowns of yellow faille and carried pale blue shattered carnations, arranged in a shower cascade. Their headresses were of shattered carnations corresponding to their bouquets.

Claude E. Thurston, Columbus, attended his brother as best man. Seating the guests were, G. A. Sherman, Chillicothe, and Harold R. Sherman, Pataskala. Laddie Sherman, Chillicothe, was an acolyte.

Miss Abbe Mills Clarke presented a period of pre-nuptial selections on the organ preceding the ceremony. Melvin A. Yates sang, "Oh, Promise Me," "Through the Years," and "I Love You Truly." Miss Clarke played "The Swan" — Saint-Saens, "Traume" by Wagner, "Prize Song" by Walther from "Der Meistersinger," "I Love Thee" by Greig, Lohengrin's processional and Mendelssohn's recessional. As the vows were being exchanged she softly played "Moonlight Sonata" — Beethoven 1st movement. Mr. Yates sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte as the bride and bridegroom were knelt in prayer.

MR. AND MRS. ROOT were hosts at a reception immediately following the ceremony in the Pickaway Arms. Greeting the guests as they entered the beautifully decorated diningroom were the new Mr. and Mrs. Thurston, the bride's parents, Mrs. Laverna Watkins, Delaware, aunt of the bridegroom, Miss Dunmeyer, Miss Schlatter and Miss Riffe. Mrs. Root received her guests in an aqua dinner gown. Mrs. Watkins wore a pale blue floor length frock. Both wore orchids.

Yellow and white rose buds and blue delphinium and many burning candles were used to decorate the spacious diningroom. Bride's table was covered with a damask cloth and centered with a large three-tiered wedding cake surrounded with maidenhair fern. Miniature bride and bridegroom was placed on top of the cake. Tall white tapers and bowls of flowers were arranged about the table. Mrs. Wilbur Hoon, Columbus, presided at the punch table, where arrangements of yellow, white and blue flowers carried out the predominating color schemes, Miss Verna Wenzler, Toledo, and Miss Sadie Miller, Archbold, assisted in serving refreshments.

When the new Mr. and Mrs. Thurston left for a motor trip to Hollywood, Florida, the bride was wearing an aqua linen suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

BRIDE WAS graduated from Circleville high school, Bliss Business College, Columbus, and Bowling Green State University. Mr. Thurston is a graduate of Central Academy, and majored in chemistry at Central College, McPherson, Kansas. He was discharged from the Army as a lieutenant, after spending 54 months in the service, 42 of which were spent in the Southwest Pacific area. At present he is associated with the Deyo Funeral Home, Columbus. When the new couple return from their wedding trip they will make their home in Columbus.

Out of town guests at the wedding and reception included, Mr. and Mrs. George Thurston, Miss Betty May Thurston and Claude Thurston, Miss Betty May Thurston and Robert Thurston, Ashley; Mrs. Watkins and Kenyon Watkins, Mrs. Velma Hopper, Delaware; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Deyo, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Livingston, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Livingston, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John R. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Barb, Miss Louise Barb, Mrs. Fred Windmiller, Miss Helen Windmiller, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Capioni, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Hgele, Miss Virginia Bean and Mrs. Hoon, Columbus.

LEW WORSHAM, OPEN WINNER, SEEKING SLAM

EN ROUTE FROM ST. LOUIS TO DETROIT, June 16—Twenty-nine-year-old Lew Worsham, Jr., moved in on professional golf-dom's greatest double slam today after parlaying a dream he had two nights before into the mighty open championship of the United States.

This flint-jawed Virginian, who never had much but dreams, saw himself the open champion as he slept a fitful sleep in his St. Louis hotel room Friday night. Shortly before noon yesterday that dream became a smashing reality when Sam Snead, Worsham's foe for the final 18 play-off holes, missed a 30-inch putt on the final green.

So it was on to Detroit for Worsham today—Detroit and the P.G.A. tournament, which coming back to back with the open, starts its week-long stand at Plum Hollow golf club next Wednesday.

Worsham picked up three strokes on the last three holes to win by one swing with a 69—two under par for a golf course which previously had treated the Hogans, the Lockes and the Demarets to 72 holes of frustration. After his normal open route, which started Thursday, had carried him through 70-71-71 and a total of 282, Worsham sat by and watched Saturday afternoon while Snead bogeyed the 71st and then sank a 15-foot putt on the 72nd green to tie for the lead. Snead carded 72-70-70-282.

Locke, the South African, could have made it a three-way tie by firing his last nine holes in par, but the Briton blundered home in three strokes over and scored 285, along with Ed Oliver of Wilmington, Del.

By MEL HEIMER

his wardrobe insured for a hundred thousand dollars, and he listed among his possessions 172 suits, 3,000 ties and 400 pairs of handkerchiefs. Furthermore, he added, he gave his suits away after wearing them 14 times each.

Well, I am a man who gives his suits away—reluctantly—after wearing them 14 years each, so I suppose I cannot rightfully pass on Trauerman's claims.

I also wear clothes that are too loud, mismatched and unpressed. Yet I think the best-dressed man in New York probably is lucky if he has 10 suits, let alone 172. This would be Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt.

I am continually coming across Alfie (that drives him wild) at tennis matches, or in gin mills or at the racetrack, and he always seems to wear the same suit and tie. Yet you look at him and say, "Boy—can he wear clothes!"

It has something to do with the air about one, Trauerman. Even 3,000 ties can't give it to you. You might get started, though, by first acquiring 30 million bucks.

Opinions expressed by the writer in the column are the views of the author and not necessarily those of the Circleville Herald.

PAIRINGS FOR INDIANAPOLIS, MILWAUKEE NEW TOURNEY MADE THREATS IN AA

By International News Service
Two new threats loomed on the American Association horizon today while the three league leaders battled to an exhausting standstill.

The latest darkhorses were Indianapolis and Milwaukee, currently tied for fourth place but only a half game out of second in the airtight Association race.

Both the Indians and the Brewers achieved double header victories yesterday.

The Indians downed St. Paul, 9 to 0 and 6 to 3, with Bob Malloy giving only four hits in the opener. Ben Guentini had a homerun in each game for Indianapolis.

Milwaukee trounced Columbus twice, 7 to 2 and 18 to 5, with Ewald Pyle and Jim Wallace coasting to easy triumphs. The Brewers blasted 26 hits in the games.

Meanwhile, pacesetter Kansas City split a double header with second place Toledo, the Blues winning the opener, 7 to 4, and the Mud Hens salvaging the nightcap, 4 to 3.

Kansas City scored four runs in the last two innings to take the first game, while a two-run rally won the final game for Toledo.

Louisville's Joe Ostrowski subdued Minneapolis with five hits in a 3-to-1 first game, but the Millers bounced back in the afterpiece with a 5-to-1 victory on Rube Fischer's three-hitter.

Third flight: Dwight Steele and George Fickard; T. O. Moore and R. L. Brehmer Sr.; Dr. C. G. Stewart and Everett Stocklen; V. L. Hawkes and Luther Bower; J. Wray Henry and Frank Wanz; Dr. P. C. Routzahn and John Magill; Elmon Richards and Dr. P. W. Pinkerton; Joe Noecker and Jack Stout.

Pickaway County Will Have Safe And Sane Fourth Of July

OFFICIALS SET TO ENFORCE LAW ON FIREWORKS

Sale Of All Types Will Be Prohibited In City And County

Fourth of July in Circleville and Pickaway county will be safe and sane it was declared Monday by city and county law-enforcement officials.

Sheriff Charles Radcliff and Police Chief William F. McCrady asserted that a state law banning the sale or possession of firecrackers and fireworks will be rigidly enforced and that violations either before or on July 4 will be curbed.

The officials pointed out that fireworks sales are expressly prohibited by three sections of the Ohio General Code. The sections are 5904-1 (a), 5904-6, and 5904-7. All law-enforcement officers are obligated to see that the law is enforced.

EVERY YEAR as the Fourth of July draws near roadside fireworks stands spring up in many counties just outside the corporate limits of cities. Sheriff Radcliff said no such stands will be permitted in 1947.

The sheriff explained that there is only one exception to the complete state-wide prohibition of fireworks. The one exception is that toy pistols, toy canes, toy guns or other devices, in which paper caps are used, may be used and sold at all times, providing they are so constructed that the hand cannot come in contact with the cap when in place for the explosion, and that the paper caps contain less than twenty-five hundredths of one grain of explosive mixture.

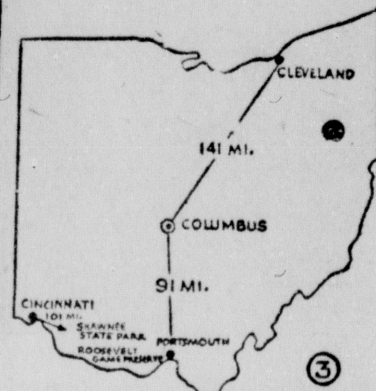

The three sections of the Ohio law were enacted in 1941 to protect the public... and especially children—from accidents and to insure a safe and sane Fourth of July.

THE SECTIONS READ:

Section 5904-1(a)
"The term 'fireworks' shall mean and include any combustible or explosive composition, or any substance or composition of substances, or article prepared for the purpose of producing a visible or an audible effect by combustion, explosion, deflagration or detonation."
Section 5904-6
"(Sale and use of fireworks.) Except as herein-after provided it shall be un-

The lake at Shawnee State Forest.

LET'S EXPLORE OHIO State Parks

Located just north of the Ohio River in Scioto and Adams counties, the 60,000 wild and wooded acres of the Shawnee State Forest and the 8,000-acre Theodore Roosevelt Game Preserve can be reached over virtually every Federal and Ohio State highway in this part of the state.

Here is the forest primeval of Ohio. Once the favorite hunting grounds of the Shawnee Indians, it has mile upon mile of almost mountainous forest, cut by narrow valleys carved down some 600 feet by erosion through the ages.

The motorist will find the countryside of interest, for romance lives along every rolling mile of Route 23, which follows the ancient "Warriors' Path" of the Shawnee Indians in their raids south into Kentucky and north to the fishing in Sandusky Bay. Earthworks of the early days are plentiful in the Scioto Valley and the Serpent Mound is just a half hour's drive west of Shawnee Forest Route 73.

Shawnee Forest is marked by Copperhead Fire Tower, from which you can get a magnificent view of the surrounding forests and hills. Wild life abounds with deer and other animals.

Leaving National Route 52 at Friendship on State Route 125, you reach the 175-acre park that encircles Roosevelt Lake, one of five in the towering forest. Through the forest area thread 125 miles of motor roads and hiking trails cross the rugged hills and deep ravines. The lake is stocked with fish which may be caught after July 1st. A bathing beach with lifeguard on duty, picnic tables and fire-places, drinking water and shelter house are provided.

Camping by families and organized groups is permitted in both Shawnee State Forest and Roosevelt Park, after securing permission from the local rangers in charge.

lawful for any person to possess for sale at retail or to sell at retail or for any person to discharge, ignite, or explode any fireworks, as defined by this act, within the state of Ohio. The term "fireworks" shall NOT include toy pistols, toy canes, toy guns, or other devices in which grains or less of explosive compound are used, providing they are so constructed that the hand cannot come in contact with the cap when in place for the explosion, and toy pistol paper caps which contain less than twenty hundredths grains of explosive mixture, the sale and use of which shall be permitted at all times."
Section 5904-7

"(Chief of fire department or sheriff may permit sale and use of fireworks; responsibility; sales at wholesale or out of state.) Upon written permission secured from the fire chief of a city or village, or sheriff, fireworks may be sold and used for public or private exhibitions of fireworks in connection with fairs, carnivals, or other celebrations. In such cases parties in charge of such exhibitions shall be held strictly responsible for any damage to persons or properties resulting from the use of fireworks so used. Fireworks being held in storage for such exhibitions must be kept in a closed wooden box, or tarpaulin, until they are to be used, provided further that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit any wholesaler, dealer, or jobber to sell at wholesale such fireworks as are permitted to be used by this act or the sale of fireworks to be shipped directly out of the state."

A NEW MILESTONE in U. S. commercial aviation will be reached on June 17 when a 44-passenger, 10,000-horsepower Pan American Airways Constellation of the type shown at top will leave New York City on the first flight of a scheduled weekly round-the-world service. The route covers 21,426 miles (map, center) and makes the U. S. the first country to provide a round-the-world service. Up to the present, a passenger on such a flight would have to make numerous changes from one airline to another. To what degree commercial aviation has progressed in the last 20 years is indicated on the map where an arrow shows the first scheduled commercial overwater route—the 90-mile stretch between Key West, Fla., and Havana, Cuba—flown by an American plane. At bottom is the 8-passenger Fokker that made the flight.

Three Suspects Held In Shooting At Adelphi

Authorities rounded up three of four men today who allegedly attempted the burglary of an Adelphi cafe and shot and wounded a tent show operator when he interrupted them.

Frank Barton, 50, Adelphi, the operator of the show, was reported in fair condition in Chillicothe hospital with bullet wounds in the right chest and right shoulder. He was placed in an oxygen tent.

The wounded man told police he was carrying a revolver as he counted his day's receipts. His work was interrupted when he heard a noise in the cafe of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Katherine Spaul, across the street.

Investigating, he found four men moving cigarettes and cases of beer into a truck. While he talked to one of the quartet whom he recognized, another grabbed his revolver and shot him, according to Barton's account.

James E. Collier, 25, route 1, Londonderry, telephoned authorities and then surrendered voluntarily at Adelphi. James Willard Walraven, 19, identified as an escapee from the Orient school for the feeble-minded, and his brother, Philip, 17, both of Londonderry, were picked up later. All three were held for investigation in the Ross county jail.

Meanwhile, authorities searched the hills of Ross and Hocking counties for the fourth suspect, Floyd Leroy Richards, 25. The state highway patrol said that he was armed and dangerous.

Thatcher Man Killed In Crash

SEVEN PERSONS HURT IN 5-CAR SMASHUP ON 23

Orpheus Chaffin, 26, Dies Almost Instantly In Unusual Accident

Orpheus Chaffin, 26, Route 4, Circleville, was killed, and seven other persons were injured, in a traffic crash at 8:45 p. m. Sunday on U. S. Route 23, nine miles south of Circleville in Ross county near the Pickaway county line.

Five cars were involved in the fatal accident. Mr. Chaffin was killed almost instantly. His injuries included a neck fracture and a crushed chest.

THE INJURED: Mrs. Martha Chaffin, 26, and Judith Ann Chaffin, 4; Herbert Pierce, 36, and Mrs. Martha Pierce, 34, Columbus, and their three children, Robert, 14, Mary, 9, and Annette, 12.

In an attempt to fix responsibility for the five-car crash state highway patrolmen from the Chillicothe post conducted an all night search and Monday morning took into custody Earl Pettiford, 36, Route 2, Chillicothe.

Pettiford was being questioned early Monday afternoon and at that time no formal charge had been filed against him.

THE BODY of Mr. Chaffin was removed to the Whittier-Root funeral home at Chillicothe.

After receiving emergency treatment in the Chillicothe hospital Mrs. Chaffin and Judith Ann were removed to the home of the child's grandmother, Mrs. James Elliott, Chillicothe.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce and their son, Robert, were removed to Berger hospital, Circleville, where X-rays were taken Monday to determine the extent of their injuries. The other Pierce children, Mary and Annette, were given first aid at the Chillicothe hospital and were then removed to the home of their uncle, Elmer Ziesler, Chillicothe jeweler.

MR. CHAFFIN operated a garage at the village of Thatcher and he was widely known, especially among farmers for whom he did considerable repairing of tractors and other farm machinery.

Highway patrolmen reported that the five-car accident occurred as follows:

Pettiford was driving south. His car sideswiped the north-bound auto of Charles Chandler, 32, of Hilliard, and the Pettiford machine then sideswiped the car of E. Robert Soulsin, Columbus, which also was traveling north. The Pettiford car then struck the south-bound Chaffin machine which was hurled headon against the north-bound Pierce car.

The Ohio college association reported today on a survey made on reports that the institutions were "full up." Of 41 colleges reporting, only 14 had reached capacity in enrollment and 22 in housing.

"Despite rumors to the contrary, high school graduates may still enroll in Ohio colleges for the coming year," commented Dr. K. H. McFall, guidance director of Bowling Green State university and survey committee chairman.

Another flood threat was subsiding Monday and Pickaway farmers were anxiously awaiting sunshine to dry out fields.

The Scioto river dropped slowly after reaching a 15-foot high Sunday. Monday morning the river was still over 14 feet and many lowlands were covered.

Sunday the official thermometer got only as high as 71.

Forecasters said that temperatures this afternoon over Ohio would range between 68 and 78 degrees and that the low readings tonight would be between 48 and 55 degrees. Tomorrow afternoon's range was set at between 74 and 82 degrees.

RUSSIA BLAMED BY FORRESTAL

Navy Secretary Says Soviet Union Blocked Efforts For Axis Treaties

WELLESLEY, Mass., June 16—Secretary of Navy Forrestal today charged Russia with blocking Secretary of State Marshall's efforts to write peace treaties with Germany and the axis satellite nations.

Forrestal's assertion came in a speech prepared for delivery at Wellesley college graduation exercises.

The cabinet member stressed the need for peace treaties, and said:

"Secretary Marshall did his best to attack these problems in Moscow last winter, but he was blocked by Russia. He will renew his efforts next November."

Forrestal declared that failure of the world to find peace in the past two years creates and aggravates fears of a third world conflict.

He added, however, that there are many indications that such fears are groundless and that the world can truly hope for future peace.

Forrestal asserted that among the hopeful signs are the United States' determined efforts to continue international cooperation through the United Nations and the freeing of India by Great Britain. But he added:

"At no time in history has there been a greater basis for a pessimistic and skeptical view of the future. Wherever one looks there is trouble and uncertainty."

RUSSIA REJECTS DEMANDS FOR HUNGARY PROBE

WASHINGTON, June 16—The state department today acknowledged receipt of a Soviet rejection to the U. S.-British demand for a three-power investigation of the recent pro-Communist coup d'etat in Hungary.

Lincoln White, a state department spokesman, said the note is being studied, but declined to predict what the next step will be. The United States note implied that the case might be carried to the United Nations.

MEASURE SAID UNFAIR, UNSAFE BY PRESIDENT

Message To Congress Says Slash Would Increase Inflationary Pressure

WASHINGTON, June 16—

President Truman today vetoed the four billion dollar GOP tax reduction bill as an unfair and unsafe measure favoring high income groups.

The chief executive declared in a veto message to congress that tax reduction is not justified. He emphasized:

"Despite many gloomy predictions, there is no convincing evidence that a recession is imminent."

He asserted that a tax slash would increase inflationary pressures. He added:

"If these pressures are long continued, and if essential readjustments within the price structure are long deferred, we are likely to induce the very recession we seek to avoid."

THE HOUSE is expected to override the veto tomorrow, but the senate, which acts on the veto Wednesday, is expected to sustain it.

Mr. Truman in refusing to approve the bill, asserted that reductions in income tax rates are not needed to permit necessary business and investment expansion.

He declared that liquid funds in the hands of corporations and individuals now total nearly 200 billion dollars. The President outlined a three-point program for eventual tax readjustment.

HE CALLED FOR:

1. Plans for a thoroughgoing revision of the tax system.
2. Reduction of the public debt to as great a degree as possible.
3. Reduction of prices as a barrier against inflation and depression.

Mr. Truman told congress that the tax reduction bill which would affect the incomes of 48 million Americans is "the wrong kind of tax reduction. At the wrong time."

He said:

"IT OFFERS dubious, ill-apportioned, and risky benefits at the expense of a sound tax policy and is, from the standpoint of the nation, a disaster."

ATLANTIC, GULF COASTS TIED UP BY NEW STRIKE

NEW YORK, June 16—Shipping was paralyzed along the Atlantic and gulf coasts today by a work stoppage of 200,000 CIO seamen and longshoremen.

The joint policy committee of five CIO unions directed members to remain on ships but to do no work.

This was a strategic move, in the expectation that the men would be ordered off the ships, so that the unions might claim a "lockout" by operators and ship owners.

Union agents said that 150 ships were tied up in New York, 40 in Philadelphia, 40 in Baltimore, four in Boston, and one in Portland, Me. In Houston, Tex., 1,000 men quit work after midnight.

Three American ships managed to get away from New York early this morning. They were the Liberty ship Richard N. Johnson, Andalein and Empire Roding, all apparently sailing with a full complement of men.

Governor Herbert Fares Well In First Session With Ohio Legislature

COLUMBUS, O., June 16—Governor Herbert boasted a pretty fair legislative batting average today, but it took a barrage of hits in the last inning to keep him in the gubernatorial big league.

As the Ohio assembly worked all night Saturday with covered clocks and until 7:22 a. m. yesterday to finish its business for the year, it completed action on the following bills to fatten the prestige of the chief executive:

A $547,000,000 general appropriations bill;

A $70,297,000 postwar improvements bill;

A quarter-of-a-million-dollar bill to pay 84 miscellaneous claims against the state;

An 86 million-dollar-a-year school aid bill;

A bill to regulate strip mining;

A bill to ban strikes by all public employees, including school teachers;

Two bills providing pay raises for elective officials and appointive state officials;

Three bills to create university housing commissions, renew the post-war program commission, and create a commission to select and purchase a state fairgrounds site for not more than $500,000, and

A bill authorizing the state to accept Fletcher General hospital from the federal government.

THREE DOZEN hits shared the ninth-inning spotlight with defeat of a bill to permit the sale of colored oleomargarine in Ohio; the passage by the narrowest of margins in both houses of the Van Aken bill to curb the practices of labor unions, and a bill cutting employers' contributions to the state unemployment compensation fund by some 30 million dollars a year.

Somebody else was at bat on those measures, however, as Ohio housewives must continue to color their own margarine as the bill to legalize the sale of colored oleo died in the house in the most farcical session of the 97th Ohio general assembly.

The bill, which previously had been passed by the city-minded senate, was tabled by a 67-52 vote in the rural-dominated house on the last working day of the session.

A few of the speakers tried to stick to their subject seriously, but it was just no go. Rep. Floyd Griffin (R-Allen) had the members screaming with laughter as he deplored, in ludicrous verse, the plight of the farmer. Rep. Paul Ballard (R-Jackson) usually one of the more-serious minded members, interrupted Griffin by parading to and back from the rostrum with a huge American flag.

Rep. Don M. Duncan (R-Adams) proposed an amendment to permit oleo be colored, not yellow, but "chocolate, strawberry or vanilla, like ice cream." The amendment came within a whisper of being adopted, but Speaker William O'Neill ruled it lost out on a voice vote.

As chants came from the rear of the chamber that "we want margarine," a motion to table was carried on a 67-52 roll call vote.

OHIO SCHOOLS GET RECORD AID

Assembly Votes $86,000,000 Per Year In State Assistance Funds

COLUMBUS, O., June 16—Ohio schools will get an all-time record high state aid grant of 86 million dollars for each school year.

That was the figure arrived at by a senate-house conference committee which reported the compromise between house and senate to the Ohio legislature just minutes before the lawmakers went home at 7:22 a. m. yesterday after waiting all night for the report.

The report was submitted bitterly to the house by Rep. William Manahan (R-Defiance) who assailed the senate conferees for their reliance on school lobbyists.

"It's pretty difficult for a house committee of three members to compete with a senate committee of four," he stated.

"Not one proposal was made but that a senate member had to leave the room and consult with the secretary of the Ohio Education association, to find out what to do. I have never seen a man so brazenly interfere with the operations of any committee."

STATE'S LARGE SURPLUS SLATED TO SHRINK FAST

COLUMBUS, O., June 16—Ohio's vaunted treasury surplus, which once approached the 200 million dollar mark, approached the vanishing point today as the Ohio legislature wound up its year's work appropriating all but four million dollars.

The appropriations bill, which came out of a house-senate conference, carried some 547 million dollars for the state's operation in 1947 and 1948, including 25 millions for a first payment on a soldier bonus if one is approved in November by the voters.

The postwar improvements bill, boosted from the house-approved $64,672,000 to $71,297,000 by the senate and then passed 32-0, was accepted by the house at that figure. In addition, it appropriates some 59 millions of unexpected balances originally allocated for capital improvements two years ago.

Rep. Paul Ballard (R-Jackson) chairman of the house finance committee, said that, with other appropriations, there would be only about four millions left.

161-ACRE BODY OF WATER TO BE WAR MEMORIAL

400-Acre Playground Area At Devils' Backbone To Be Developed By State

Pickaway county will have a lake sometime in the near future. Three years of work to get the proposed memorial lake in the Devil's Backbone area was rewarded over the weekend when the Ohio legislature appropriated $150,000 to finance the project.

Senators Evert Addison and Roscoe Walcutt and Representative H. E. Louis sponsored the bill in the assembly which would provide funds to buy land and build a dam. Funds were appropriated when the state's lawmakers finally approved the $70,290,000 postwar improvements measure.

Present plans call for a lake which will cover 161 acres. Options are held on 400 acres of land and all of this will be used in the park which will be built around the lake.

Options will be taken up by the conservation department and land purchased from the owners.

PLANS CALL for a changing of roads in that area and the establishment of a large recreation area. On parts of the 400 acres not covered by the lake will be new roads, picnic grounds with tables, outdoor furnaces, places for various outdoor activities, buildings and other improvements.

The lake itself will be stocked with fish and can be used for boating. In the winter ice skating and other cold weather sport are expected.

Walter Richards, president of the Pickaway County Farmers and Sportsmen association, has been active in recent efforts to get the state funds for the lake. The organization started the project and various members have been active in working to get the lake built.

L. H. MEBS was the leader of the first definite drive to get the lake built. He interested various civic groups and got pledges of cooperation from the conservation department in planning and building the project.

Later the Pickaway County Memorial association was formed and this group started work to secure the lake as a living memorial to residents of the county who died during service in World War II. This body secured options on the land and kept up contacts with state officials in an effort to get the project approved.

12 KILLED IN B-29 CRASH INTO VERMONT MOUNT

SPRINGFIELD, Vt., June 16—Army officials today began an investigation to determine the cause of a B-29 Superfortress crash into the side of Hawks mountain early Sunday morning.

Other than the fact that the huge craft was winging through a torrential rainstorm, there was no explanation at this time to account for the plane being so far off its course.

The plane, based at Tucson, Ariz., had refueled at Pittsfield on a training flight that was to take it to Bedford, Mass. Lieut. Joseph Lioni, medical corps officer, placed the number of dead at 11. However, an Army spokesman reported late last night that 12 instead of 11 might have been killed in the crash.

The bodies of the flyers were so mutilated and burned that at first it was believed there were only eight aboard the plane.

LIQUOR HEAD QUILTS

COLUMBUS, O., June 16—State Liquor Director Stanley B. Coffal ended weeks of rumor and speculation today by submitting his resignation in person to Governor Herbert. The governor announced that he had accepted the resignation and that it would be effective today.

Mr. Truman said that the reduction measure is inflationary and that reductions in income taxes are not now necessary to permit business expansion.

He declared there is no shortage of funds for business needs throughout most of the nation's economy.

The chief executive also emphasized that the tax reduction bill, as passed by congress, "is not the proper way" to remedy either the current price situation, or improve the effect of current high prices upon consumers and upon employment.

TRUMAN NAMES FIVE MEN TO MAKE AIR PROBE

WASHINGTON, June 16—The full power of the United States government was thrown behind the newly-appointed Truman air safety board today in its mission to end the deadly toll of aviation disasters.

President Truman named five of the nation's top aviation experts to conduct the safety inquiry, about 48 hours after a Capital airliner crashed into a Virginia mountainside with a toll of 50 lives.

This crash brought the nation's aerial death toll to 146 for a 15 day period and to 244 in six recent major disasters.

The president named James M. Landis, civil aeronautics board chairman, to head the special board. Other members are Dr. Jerome C. Hunsaker, chairman, national advisory committee for aeronautics; Brig. Gen. Milton W. Arnold of the Air Transport association; civil aeronautics administrator Theodore P. Wright, and H. B. Cox, veteran pilot of the Air Line Pilots' association.

The board meets tomorrow to organize and draft a campaign for bringing safety to American airways.

The Swedish justice also prepared an appeal for broadcast in three languages this afternoon over the Palestine radio.

The Arab higher committee, meanwhile, won 100 per cent Arab support for its organized boycott of the investigating group and for its Palestine-wide protest strike today.

WALLACE WILL WAIT AND SEE ON THIRD TERM

Anti-Communist Group Tries To Bar Speech By Former Vice President

WASHINGTON, June 16—Henry Agard Wallace clung to a "wait and see" policy on his future plans today as he invaded President Truman's "backyard" in his campaign to "liberalize the Democratic party."

The former vice president will speak tonight at the government-owned Watergate, along the Potomac, not far from the White House, unless a district court during the day prohibits his use of federal property.

The American anti-Communist association is seeking an injunction to compel Secretary of Interior Krug to withdraw his consent for use of the Watergate. The association condemned Wallace for his attacks on President Truman's foreign policies and charged the sponsor of his speech, the Southern Conference for Human Welfare, is a Communist-front organization.

The anti-Communist organization cited an attack on the Wallace sponsoring group by the house committee on un-American activities. The house committee charged the sponsoring group as being "perhaps the most deviously camouflaged Communist-front" in the nation.

AT A SUNDAY news conference, Wallace sidestepped all questions about his 1948 plans either to run against President Truman in Democratic primaries or against him on a "liberal third party" ticket. At one point, however, he left the door open to lead a third party next year "in the interest of peace."

Wallace resumed his attacks on the presidential foreign program by charging the "Truman doctrine and reactionaries are the best friends the Communist have."

HE DECLARED Russia's seizure of Hungary was no more important than American-British domination of Greece. He added:

"The really important and war-breeding spot in Europe is Turkey, the queen in the game for Saudi-Arabian oil. The United States and Great Britain would fight the moment red forces got into central Turkey with tanks and parachutists and menaced Saudi-Arabian oil."

Under questioning by newsmen, Wallace first said the United States and Britain "should" fight Russia if the Soviets invaded Turkey. He promptly amended this to say he thought they "would". He called "should" too strong a word and "warlike talk" which he sought to avoid.

GARDEN BRIEFS

Start staking all tall plants in borders. Remember that the art of staking lies in supporting the plant without making the stake too evident. Use soft cord and don't bind it too tight.

If you have any transplanting to do, choose a cool, cloudy afternoon—water well before lifting and after planting and shade the plants for the first few hours to prevent wilting.

Asparagus should not be cut after late June. As soon as the cutting season is over give the bed a liberal top-dressing of well-rotted manure and spray the foliage with arsenate of lead to prevent its destruction by the asparagus beetle.

As hot weather sets in, elevate the blades of your lawn mower so that they do not cut grass so short.

Water all newly transplanted trees, shrubs and perennials. Mulch the ground around Rhododendrons and Azaleas with leafmold, peat or grass clippings.

Cultivate rose beds to reduce rose bugs. Dust or spray rose foliage every 10 days to check mildew and blackspot.

Thousands Now Regaining Old Time Pep, Vigor and Drive By Releasing Vibrant Energy To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Overwork, undue worry, and lack of certain foods often reduce the red-blood strength—and starved, weak, puny blood just hasn't the power to keep up your energy and drive.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

YOUR NEW REGULAR ARMY WANTS YOU TO KNOW HOW VOLUNTEERS ARE SELECTED

Would it surprise you to know that only about 60 out of every 100 volunteers for the new Regular Army can measure up to today's requirements for a soldier?

Only the top 60% of American youth—mentally, morally and physically—can pass the rigid tests.

There are reasons for this which your Army wants you to know:

- The men we send overseas must represent you to millions of people who are struggling towards democracy. They must be typical of our best.
- The truly modern Army requires a far higher type of soldier than ever before. The wide use of scientific material and the broad program of research necessitate a superior man. Your Army must lead the world in the caliber of its men if it is to provide adequate defense in the atomic age.

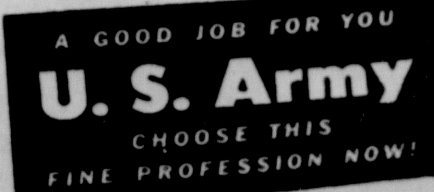

These are reasons why Army enlistment standards today are higher than ever before—why your new Regular Army, although comparatively small in size—is performing its world-wide duties well.

In Japan, for example, ours is the smallest occupation force per capita in world history—yet there is no record of greater achievement in such a short space of time.

If you can measure up to these standards, you will find enlistment in the new Regular Army a good career. You will live and work with friends whom you will value always. You will have opportunity for travel and high adventure, and a chance to qualify for Officer Candidate Schools and Technical Schools. Above all, you will have the deep satisfaction of doing an important job for your country.

Ask at any U. S. Army Recruiting Station about the many opportunities open to men who volunteer for three years.

A NEW-OLD WORD

AN APPARENTLY new word, "geriatrics," is coming into common use. Actually it isn't new at all since it comes from an ancient Greek word meaning "old." It is being used more now because of the increased emphasis being placed on problems of old age.

The American Geriatrics Society met recently in Atlantic City to plan how to make old age healthier, happier and more profitable to individuals and society. With nine per cent of the American population now made up of folks over 65, and the number rising steadily, long life in itself is not enough of an aim for geriatrics specialists. They listened while several doctors discussed the illnesses of advanced age, and measures for their prevention. Good health, at any age, is the first criterion for useful happiness.

One measure of a society's civilization is its handling of its aged. Savage races, in many instances, viewed the aged as burdens and disposed of them accordingly. It is a curious paradox that this modern civilization, whose scientific knowledge can so protect and prolong the period of active life, is the same which has perfected the horrors of modern war, with its attendant loss of millions of young and able men and women.

AIDING WORLD FRIENDSHIP

"MY COUNTRYMEN, know one another and you will love one another." These noble words of Lucius Q. Lamar of Mississippi, associate justice of the Supreme Court, may have inspired the memorial fund set up this year by the widow of Frank Knox, the former Secretary of the Navy. Mrs. Knox has just given Harvard University $1,000,000 to aid in a "program of exchange fellowships throughout the world." This will enable American university students of advanced standing to carry on their work in other parts of the world, while the corresponding opportunity of getting acquainted with America is extended to foreign students.

The Rhodes scholarships have enabled many Americans to know England better. The Knox fund will be worth while if it does as much for better mutual understanding with other countries. Only by such individual knowledge, gained through living in a foreign land, do citizens of one country learn not to believe the usual preposterous yarns which spread so rapidly about another's beliefs and customs.

WAR MONEY

THE United States is getting reparations from Germany, though no peace treaty has been signed. They come from sale of Nazi war-time technical and scientific reports of patents and inventions. Sold to American customers at a few dollars apiece, they are bringing in $6,000 a week.

It will take quite a while, however, before this makes a dent in the war debt.

MY NEW YORK

By MEL HEIMER

NEW YORK — A couple of months back I was talking to a young college girl who was making her first trip to New York. It was something—it always is—to see her eyes spin and watch her gasp at the big buildings and the lights and the whoop-la. I shrugged at it all and pooh-poohed, as a good New Yorker should, and said casually, "It's nothing"—but actually I was secretly pleased, like a kid showing off his new red wagon. There was only one drawback. She looked at me, wide-eyed, and said, "My—but the men in New York look right through a girl, don't they?"

The other day I heard the same complaint, voiced this time by a movie starlet, and couched in somewhat different terms. "I love this town," Joan Loring said to me over an omelet in the Gotham, "But I think I better carry a baseball bat, the next time I walk down the street."

Miss Loring was a little baffled; she doesn't claim to be a ravishing beauty—she says her nose is too long—but evidently she had been wolfed by the passersby since she blew into town. "Hello, kid?" "How about you and me, honey?" — she had heard the whole routine twice over.

I wonder why it is that Manhattan men are such rakes? They have drugstore cowboys in every city and town in the country, but none seem to have the swift, glib, hard approach of the New Yorker, to whom it seems to be second nature.

Girls who come into New York from Chicago, Pittsburgh and Boston are always getting into minor little troubles because they have been brought up to smile readily and quickly and naturally.

If you smile the smallest smile in Manhattan, four men are at your side ready to whisk you away. You can tell girls who have been here for more than six months. Their faces are masks, in the street. Unless they are sure of where they are and whom they are with, they don't smile.

I passed Sam Kramer's jewelry studio on Eighth st. the other day and couldn't help think that here is the poor man's Salvador Dali. They are both crazy — like foxes. Sam is the Village silversmith who hawks his wares as "mad, bizarre and fantastic," and it has paid off.

Nightly, the moujiks gather from all corners of the city to look at Sam's twisted and peculiar rings and bracelets, and ultimately they wander into his studio, watch with fascination as the bearded, melancholy Sam explains his work—and then pay him nice, fat sums for his stuff.

It was about Sam that S. J. Perelman wrote one of the all-time classics of literature. In describing the Kramer jewelry, S. J. soberly cast around for words and came up with: "An egg balanced on a cone, an egg balanced on a bone, a hag balanced on a roan."

Sam is quite proud of what some others have said about his craftsmanship, and he advertises their quotes freely. "Metameric, diphasic and polyvalent," one reviewer said, without furnishing his readers with the necessary dictionary. "Made me feel separate from the great manswarm of aimless living," another wrote.

I imagine that Sam, being an iconoclast, is proudest of this one, though, which he advertises as the saying of "A gray-haired Lady"; "I've traveled extensively, at home and abroad, and I've never seen anything so repulsive."

A breezy character from Pennsylvania named Bert Trauerman, who manufactures women's hosiery, blew into town the other afternoon with the complacent announcement that he was the nation's best-dressed man.

Trauerman said something about having

Heart Bother You Sometimes? It's Not Necessarily Serious

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

MANY people are under the impression that all symptoms affecting the heart are due to actual disease of the heart itself, and therefore if they experience an unusually rapid heart or other uncustomed heart action, they are terribly upset. They worry needlessly. In fact, their anxiety may only increase their heart symptoms, since according to Dr. George F. Strong of Vancouver, B. C., many such manifestations may be due to nervous tension.

There is a disorder known as neurocirculatory asthenia, not due to actual heart damage, which causes such things as fluttering or throbbing of the heart; there may be an extra beat of the heart from time to time, which is felt as a flopping or turning over of the heart; there are attacks of rapid heart beat which may be preceded or followed by trembling, sweating, paleness or slight fever. There may be shortness of breath from time to time, brought on particularly by excitement.

Actual Heart Pain

In some instances, there is actual heart pain, which is felt as a sort of burning sensation under the breast bone, or there may be aching. The pain may be felt during or after exercising, and it is not relieved by rest.

Patients with this condition tire easily, sleep poorly, and often wake up tired. They dread any sort of work. They cannot concentrate and are unable to control their emotions. The hands often feel cold, and the palms are wet. Dizziness and faintness are frequently present.

Similar Symptoms

There are other conditions which may cause similar symptoms, sometimes with heart damage, such as an increase in the amount of secretion from the thyroid gland, early tuberculosis of the lungs, rheumatic fever and undulant fever. However, by means of careful examination, it is possible to tell neurocirculatory asthenia from these other conditions.

According to Dr. Strong, the main thing in treating neurocirculatory asthenia is to rid the patient's mind of the fear that his symptoms are an indication of heart disease. This of course requires that the patient have confidence in his physician.

Quieting the Nerves

Other things which are helpful in the treatment of neurocirculatory asthenia are the use of barbiturates which act to quiet the nerves and which, of course, should be taken under the direction of a physician and in the amount which he prescribes.

At the beginning of the treatment, tea, coffee, tobacco and alcohol are prohibited. It is not necessary that the patient be put into a hospital, and prolonged rest is to be avoided. Neurocirculatory asthenia is not a serious disorder, but is one which may be eliminated with proper treatment.

GAUGING IT EXACTLY

THERE IS one situation in which a player should infer the strength of his partner's hand exactly, or to tell intents and purposes, virtually with absolute precision. That is when he has made a powerful call—like a cue-bid or a no-trump jump, a one-bid of an opponent's suit, or a redouble over a take out double after one opening bid. In that situation, you should rate his hand as just barely lacking enough strength for a sound opening bid, but nevertheless approximately as strong as an average hand or very slightly above it.

South had the unpleasant experience of seeing the defenders capture the first six tricks, with the club K, club A, diamond A, spade Q to the K and A, the spade 10 and the spade J, so was down 500 points. He was raving mad then at his partner for having redoubled without a much stronger hand—in all of which South was very much off the beam. He argued that a redouble over the opponent's informative or take out double should never be made without two and a half to three high card tricks at the very least.

He should have known it was virtually impossible for North to have that much strength, as he had passed on his first chance to open the bidding, though his side was not vulnerable and the opponents were. North gave him a further index to the doubtful quality of his redouble when on his third turn he took out the 2-Club bid into 2-Diamonds instead of doubling. When he on the fourth round supported the red double with a minimum call of 3-Hearts over the 2-Clubs, it should have been plain to South that North had hoped to hear the opponents bid diamonds, in which event his hand was fair.

South should have taken warning from North's failure to bid game when he supported hearts, and should have let the 4-Clubs go to North, especially since no hostile game had been bid.

CHAPTER FORTY

THEY HAD moved in March into another apartment of the Chatham Arms, identical with the first they had occupied except for a small bedroom next to the living room.

Diane had made this ready before the baby came. A cot for the nurse, a hassinet, lined with blue silk, canopied with net, for the baby. A small chest of drawers, hamper, rack for the towels and bathing sheets, white ruffled curtains at the window, across the window a screen, decorated with the characters of nursery rhymes.

Here the baby and Miss Tierney were established. "It's real! It's so!" Diane thought, ecstatically, a dozen times a day, going into the room to peep at the baby, asleep in the bassinet, or to watch Miss Tierney expertly bathe and dress her. Diane longed to do this herself, to do everything for the baby; in another month she would, she kept reminding herself, eagerly.

As it was, she had the baby at feeding time and for the two hours of each twenty-four when Miss Tierney went out.

"Where does she go?" Bill asked Diane.

Diane had Nellie in her arms. She answered, vaguely: "Oh, downtown. Or to a movie. Or just home. Her family live on Granger Street."

"I'd say it was important to know exactly where she goes." "Well, it's her secret time—I'm not sure she wouldn't think it was too inquisitive, if I made her account to me for it. Bill look at Nellie's ears! Aren't they like little shells?"

Bill looked at the baby's ears. But he said: "We certainly have a right to know. She may bring all sorts of germs!"

Diane laughed. "Not Miss Tierney! She's washing her hands every other minute. A germ hasn't a chance with her! Really, she's wonderful with the baby. You won't admit it because you wanted me to have Annie Harkness."

"I'd have felt safer with Annie," Bill answered soberly.

Diane carried the sleeping baby to her bassinet, tucked the blankets about her. With her breast still warm where the baby's head had lain against it, with her heart so full of rich contentment, she could not feel annoyed by Bill's distrust of Miss Tierney. It was simply his loyalty to anyone or anything connected with his family. He considered that, because old Annie Harkness had taken care of him, she could take care of Nellie. "If Nellie had been a boy I would have had to give in," Diane thought, tucking the blankets carefully around Nellie. But Nellie was Nellie.

She could forgive Bill for not raving over Nellie's development. Of course he did not see a great deal of the darling—a few minutes in the morning before he went away, and again in the evening, and then with Miss Tierney at his elbow, looking anxious lest he disturb the baby. Anyway, she wanted each little discovery of growth to be hers, first, to be cherished while in her own heart. Time enough, later, for Bill and his family to see the wonders of this girl-child! She and Nellie had that all planned, by secret pact.

Bill had extra work on his hands, for several cases were approaching trial and Gregory Dean was with his wife at the Mayo Clinic. He brought papers and books home with him almost every evening.

While he was working on them Diane would rest against pillows on the davenport, reading or knitting, or, relaxed and wrapped in a glow of well-being, simply thinking of the baby! Soon they were to begin giving her orange juice! The first milestone! Next week she would go out for her first airing. There was a wicker carriage ready, silk covers, an embroidered pillow. A lovely little coddle thing to put around the baby. Miss Tierney would wheel her this first time, but—Two weeks more and she could let Miss Tierney go, get along with Carrie, Linda's sister, who was coming in now, to cook.

Or she would dwell on what who-ever had called during the day, had said of the baby—

Lois and Wilma had called, soon after she came back from the hospital. They had admired Miss Tierney as well as the baby, and Diane had felt more than ever satisfied with her choice. She would not have liked any sour-faced nurse bending over Nellie's perfections.

They had told Diane of all their particular little crowd was doing. The fun—and was it fun—at the Hunt Club! They'd said: "Well, you can go places now, can't you?"

But Diane had no desire to go out of sound or sight of the baby. One evening Bill came into the living room from the dinette, where he had been working, sat down beside her on the davenport.

"I'll have to do some figuring on your budget, Doctor Evert's bill came today. He certainly values his services highly!"

There had been a time when Diane would have answered that tone of Bill's with like, but not now. "Everything went so beautifully, Bill. We must consider how well I am, and how perfect the baby is!"

"That's true. Evert is good, probably earns all he gets. But with that and this nurse and the other extra expenses we'll have to trim some edges. Feel up to giving it some thought, D?"

"Oh, I have already! When Miss Tierney goes—" She outlined the plans she had been making.

At the same time she thought of her father's check, hidden away. Oh, she'd like to use it for these expenses that meant Nellie! To say: "Bill, you needn't pay a penny!" But there was Bill's pride to keep in mind, and she must not offend it by the slightest suggestion. The deed to the little house in the country lay with the check. She had not spoken of it since that evening in the hospital.

This consideration, this understanding of Bill, she saw as part of her own nature.

"I won't be sorry when she goes," Bill said, a little savagely. "She makes me feel I haven't any right to lay a hand on my own child! I can't take a step without running into her! Or a shower! I'm ready to get into it and she comes tapping at the door for something or other!"

Diane rumbled his hair. "Poor Bill! I suppose all fathers have to go through with that! But it'll be different, you'll find, in a few weeks. Nellie's so good, so well! We don't know she's around—" Soothingly, her fingers smoothing the little crease between Bill's brows.

"Another month and I'll have to start in on my campaign. There may be a fight in the primaries, unless Morrison can persuade that South Side faction to fall in line."

"Oh, I hope there isn't! It'd mean just that much more work for you, wouldn't it? Though you're sure to win—"

Pride with her sympathy, that pride she had taken in Bill's ambition, when she was first engaged to him.

"Daddy's gone a-hunting—" she sang softly to her baby, later.

The telephone rang for Miss Tierney one morning. Diane heard her voice take an impatient note. "Oh, I'll run over! Though I'm not off duty till two—"

Miss Tierney came into the living room. "That was my mother. She wants me to go over there for a few minutes. Something's upset her—"

Diane said quickly: "I can bathe Nellie! I'd love the chance! Next week I'll be doing it anyway!"

Miss Tierney got the bath things ready, changed from her uniform into a street dress, went off. And Diane bathed the baby, nursed her, laid her sleeping in the bassinet.

"She was as good as gold," she told Miss Tierney when Miss Tierney came back. In her eyes still lingered the joy of that precious ritual.

She said, feeling kind to all the world: "I hope it wasn't anything very wrong at your home."

"My mother gets excited very easily," Miss Tierney answered over her shoulder, as she went into the baby's room.

"I bathed the baby this morning," Diane told Bill triumphantly that evening.

"Where was Miss Tierney?" "Her mother called her, asked her to run over for a few minutes—"

"Where is she now?" "Bill, how can I know? She didn't take her time out this afternoon. I told her to go out, if for no more than a walk. I thought you'd like having her out—"

"I'd like to know where she goes!"

Cool Contract Without Strike | New York Demos Grumbling
Now Foreseen in Washington | Over Medina's Appointment

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—Despite the breakdown in coal wage negotiations, there is a feeling in Washington that John L. Lewis and the soft coal mine operators will get together on a contract without a serious mine strike.

There may be a stoppage next month when the mines are returned to private operation, but government officials are not alarmed. They do not think it will last long.

Labor union leaders are confident that the northern operators will soon make the miners a better offer than the recent 15-cents-an-hour pay boost proposal. They maintain that the companies are making record profits; that the industry's representatives will not permit a long strike at a time when the demand for coal is running strong and prices are high.

Moreover, union experts believe that the so-called "captive" mines will press for a settlement with Lewis. They point out that the steel companies do not want to be forced to shut down their mills.

Steel production is running full blast, the orders are piled sky high, and the steel

Miss Mary Ellen Root, Eugene Thurston Wed

Marriage Performed In Presbyterian Church Here

Soft candlelight radiated from five seven-branched candelabra amidst a background of verdant huckleberry foliage for the wedding of Miss Mary Ellen Root and Eugene Calvin Thurston, Saturday at 8:30 p. m. in the Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Donald E. Mitchell, pastor, and the Rev. William G. Kuhn, pastor of the Riverside drive Presbyterian church, Columbus, officiated for the impressive double ring ceremony, before the altar adorned in urns filled with white sprays of delphinium, gladioli and asters.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Chauncey Root, Walnut street. Bridegroom is the son of Mrs. C. A. Houghton, Hollywood, Florida, and the late Rev. R. E. Thurston.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father the bride approached the chancel down the white carpeted aisle where each pew was marked by bows of white satin ribbon. She chose for her wedding a traditional white dutchess satin gown. The fitted seed pearl bodice was accented by a V neckline, held in place by pearl clips. Long full sleeves came to points over her hands. Scalloped detail defined the low waistline, with a full skirt sweeping into a wide cathedral train. Sheerest illusion edged in Chantilly lace fell from a heart shaped tiara of seed pearls.

She carried a purple throated white orchid surrounded by a ring of white shattered carnations, arranged on top of a white Bible with streamers of white ribbons tied with gold rings falling in a cascade. Her only jewelry was a gold chain necklace which had been in the Root family for six generations. Following the tradition of something old, she carried a sheer white handkerchief carried by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. William Miller, for her wedding 50 years ago.

Miss Geraldine Dunmeyer, Cleveland, was maid of honor in a powder blue faille formal gown, with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, a bouffant skirt and bustle back. She carried a cascade bouquet of shattered yellow carnations interspersed with ivy.

BRIDESMAIDS were Miss Susanna Schlatter, Archbold, and Miss Dorris Riffle, Circleville. They wore identical gowns of yellow faille and carried pale blue shattered carnations, arranged in a shower cascade. Their headresses were of shattered carnations corresponding to their bouquets.

Claude E. Thurston, Columbus, attended his brother as best man. Seating the guests were, G. A. Sherman, Chillicothe, and Harold R. Sherman, Pataskala. Laddie Sherman, Chillicothe, was an acolyte.

Miss Abbe Mills Clarke presented a period of pre-nuptial selections on the organ preceding the ceremony. Melvin A. Yates sang, "Oh, Promise Me", "Through the Years", and "I Love You Truly". Miss Clarke played "The Swan" — Saint-Saens, "Traume" by Wagner, "Prize Song" by Walther from "Der Meistersinger", "I Love Thee" by Greig, Lohengrin's processional and Mendelssohn's recessional. As the vows were being exchanged she softly played "Moonlight Sonata" — Beethoven 1st movement. Mr. Yates sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte as the bride and bridegroom were knelt in prayer.

MR. AND MRS. ROOT were hosts at a reception immediately following the ceremony in the Pickaway Arms. Greeting the guests as they entered the beautifully decorated diningroom were the new Mr. and Mrs. Thurston, the bride's parents, Mrs. Laverna Watkins, Delaware, aunt of the bridegroom, Miss Dunmeyer, Miss Schlatter and Miss Riffle. Mrs. Root received her guests in an aqua dinner gown. Mrs. Watkins wore a pale blue floor length frock. Both wore orchids.

Yellow and white rose buds and blue delphinium and many burning candles were used to decorate the spacious diningroom. Bride's table was covered with a damask cloth and centered with a large three-tiered wedding cake surrounded with maidenhair fern. Miniature bride and bridegroom was placed on top of the cake. Tall white tapers and bowls of flowers were arranged about the table. Mrs. Wilbur Hoon, Columbus, presided at the punch table, where arrangements of yellow, white and blue flowers carried out the predominating color schemes. Miss Verna Wenzler, Toledo, and Miss Sadie Miller, Archbold, assisted in serving refreshments.

When the new Mr. and Mrs. Thurston left for a motor trip to Hollywood, Florida, the bride was wearing an aqua linen suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

BRIDE WAS graduated from Circleville high school, Bliss Business College, Columbus, and Bowling Green State University. Mr. Thurston is a graduate of Central Academy, and majored in chemistry at Central College, McPherson, Kansas. He was discharged from the Army as a lieutenant, after spending 54 months in the service, 42 of which were spent in the Southwest Pacific area. At present he is associated with the Devo Funeral Home, Columbus. When the new couple return from their wedding trip they will make their home in Columbus.

Out of town guests at the wedding and reception included, Mr. and Mrs. George Thurston, Miss Betty May Thurston and Claude Thurston, Miss Betty May Thurston and Robert Thurston, Ashley; Mrs. Watkins and Kenyon Watkins, Mrs. Velma Hopper, Delaware; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Deyo, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Livingston, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Livingston, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John R. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Barb, Miss Louise Barb, Mrs. Fred Windmiller, Miss Helen Windmiller, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Capioni, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Hgele, Miss Virginia Bean and Mrs. Hoon, Columbus.

LEW WORSHAM, OPEN WINNER, SEEKING SLAM

EN ROUTE FROM ST. LOUIS TO DETROIT, June 16—Twenty-nine-year-old Lew Worsham, Jr., moved in on professional golf-dom's greatest double slam today after parlaying a dream he had two nights before into the mighty open championship of the United States.

This flint-jawed Virginian, who never had much but dreams, saw himself the open champion as he slept a fitful sleep in his St. Louis hotel room Friday night. Shortly before noon yesterday that dream became a smashing reality when Sam Snead, Worsham's foe for the final 18 play-off holes, missed a 30-inch putt on the final green.

So it was on to Detroit for Worsham today—Detroit and the P.G.A. tournament, which coming back to back with the open, starts its week-long stand at Plum Hollow golf club next Wednesday.

Worsham picked up three strokes on the last three holes to win by one swing with a 69—two under par for a golf course which previously had treated the Hogans, the Lockes and the Demarets to 72 holes of frustration.

After his normal open route, which started Thursday, had carried him through 70-70-71-71 and a total of 282, Worsham sat by and watched Saturday afternoon while Snead bogeyed the 71st and then sank a 15-foot putt on the 72nd green to tie for the lead. Snead carded 72-70-70—282.

Locke, the South African, could have made it a three-way tie by firing his last nine holes in par, but the Briton blundered home in three strokes over and scored 285, along with Ed Oliver of Wilmington, Del.

his wardrobe insured for a hundred thousand dollars, and he listed among his possessions 172 suits, 3,000 ties and 400 pairs of handkerchiefs. Furthermore, he added, he gave his suits away after wearing them 14 times each.

Well, I am a man who gives his suits away—reluctantly—after wearing them 14 years each, so I suppose I cannot rightfully pass on Trauerman's claims.

I also wear clothes that are too loud, mismatched and unpressed. Yet I think the best-dressed man in New York probably is lucky if he has 10 suits, let alone 172. This would be Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt.

I am continually coming across Alfie (that drives him wild) at tennis matches or in gym mills or at the racetrack, and he always seems to wear the same suit and tie. Yet you look at him and say, "Boy—can he wear clothes!"

It has something to do with the air about one, Trauerman. Even 3,000 ties can't give it to you. You might get started, though, by first acquiring 30 million bucks.

Blue Ribbon Dairy and Isaly's softball teams of the Circleville Night Softball League split a twin bill with the Hurricane nine at Ohio Penitentiary Sunday afternoon.

In the first game of the double bill the Hurricane swamped the Isaly club by a 15-0 count in a loosely played contest. Weimer Perrill and Dick Wellington were on the mound for Isaly's while Kenny Knece did a very effective job of hurling for the Hurricane.

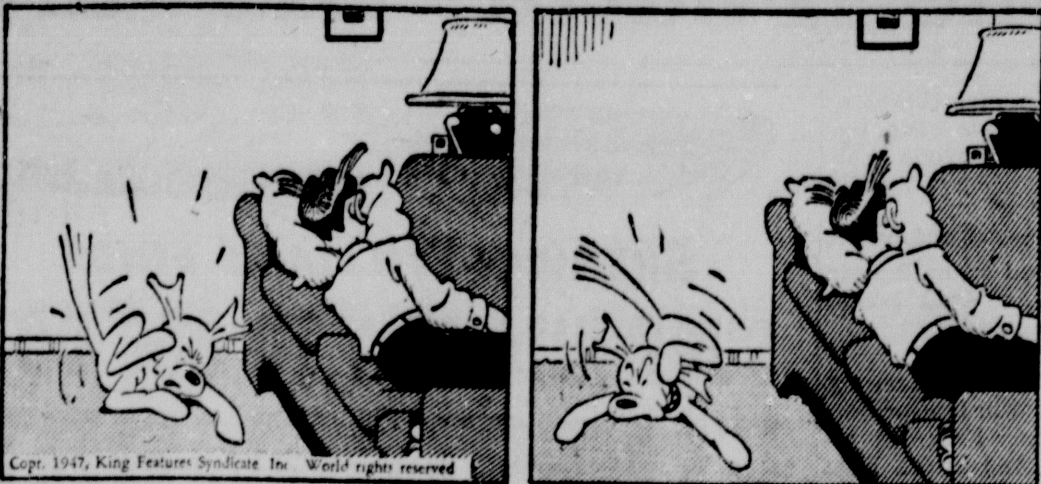

Blue Ribbon Dairy, with Todd McKinney on the mound, shut out the Hurricane in the second game by a 3-0 count.

Blue Ribbon tallied a run in the first inning when "Snow" Seymour walked, was sacrificed to second, took third on a wild pitch and scored on a passed ball.

The game then turned into a pitcher's battle, with neither team being able to score until the seventh frame when Blue Ribbon pushed across two more tallies. After two were on Jim Toole singled and Lee Siegrwald, with 2 strikes and no balls hit a home run into deep right field for the only extra base hit of the game.</

Pickaway County Will Have Safe And Sane Fourth Of July

OFFICIALS SET TO ENFORCE LAW ON FIREWORKS

Sale Of All Types Will Be Prohibited In City And County

Fourth of July in Circleville and Pickaway county will be safe and sane it was declared Monday by city and county law-enforcement officials.

Sheriff Charles Radcliff and Police Chief William F. McCrady asserted that a state law banning the sale or possession of firecrackers and fireworks will be rigidly enforced and that violations either before or on July 4 will be curbed.

The officials pointed out that fireworks sales are expressly prohibited by three sections of the Ohio General Code. The sections are 5904-1 (a), 5904-6, and 5904-7. All law-enforcement officers are obligated to see that the law is enforced.

EVERY YEAR as the Fourth of July draws near roadside fireworks stands spring up in many counties just outside the corporate limits of cities. Sheriff Radcliff said no such stands will be permitted in 1947.

The sheriff explained that there is only one exception to the complete state-wide prohibition of fireworks. The one exception is that toy pistols, toy canes, toy guns or other devices, in which paper caps are used, may be used and sold at all times, providing they are so constructed that the hand cannot come in contact with the cap when in place for the explosion, and that the paper caps contain less than twenty-five hundredths of one grain of explosive mixture.

The three sections of the Ohio law were enacted in 1941 to protect the public... and especially children—from accidents and to insure a safe and sane Fourth of July.

THE SECTIONS read:

Section 5904-1(a)
"The term 'fireworks' shall mean and include any combustible or explosive composition, or any substance or composition of substances, or article prepared for the purpose of producing a visible or an audible effect by combustion, explosion, deflagration or detonation."
Section 5904-6
"(Sale and use of fireworks.) Except as hereinafter provided it shall be un-

LET'S EXPLORE OHIO

State Parks

Located just north of the Ohio River in Scioto and Adams counties, the 60,000 wild and wooded acres of the Shawnee State Forest and the 8,000-acre Theodore Roosevelt Game Preserve can be reached over virtually every Federal and Ohio State highway in this part of the state.

Here is the forest primeval of Ohio. Once the favorite hunting grounds of the Shawnee Indians, it has mile upon mile of almost mountainous forest, cut by narrow valleys carved down some 600 feet by erosion through the ages.

The motorist will find the countryside of interest, for romance lives along every rolling mile of Route 23, which follows the ancient "Warriors' Path" of the Shawnee Indians in their raids south into Kentucky and north to the fishing in Sandusky Bay. Earthworks of the early days are plentiful in the Scioto Valley and the Serpent Mound is just a half hour's drive west of Shawnee Forest Route 73.

Shawnee Forest is marked by Copperhead Fire Tower, from which you can get a magnificent view of the surrounding forests and hills. Wild life abounds with deer and other animals.

Leaving National Route 52 at Friendship on State Route 125, you reach the 175-acre park that encircles Roosevelt Lake, one of five in the towering forest. Through the forest area thread 125 miles of motor roads and hiking trails cross the rugged hills and deep ravines. The lake is stocked with fish which may be caught after July 1st. A bathing beach with lifeguard on duty, picnic tables and fire-places, drinking water and shelter house are provided.

Camping by families and organized groups is permitted in both Shawnee State Forest and Roosevelt Park, after securing permission from the local rangers in charge.

lawful for any person to possess for sale at retail or to sell at retail or for any person to discharge, ignite, or explode any fireworks, as defined by this act, within the state of Ohio. The term 'fireworks' shall NOT include toy pistols, toy canes, toy guns, or other devices in which grains or less of explosive compound are used, providing they are so constructed that the hand cannot come in contact with the cap when in place for the explosion, and toy pistol paper caps which contain less than twenty hundredths grains of explosive mixture, the sale and use of which shall be permitted at all times."
Section 5904-7

"(Chief of fire department or sheriff may permit sale and use of fireworks; responsibility; sales at wholesale or out of state.) Upon written permission secured from the fire chief of a city or village, or sheriff, fireworks may be sold and used for public or private exhibitions of fireworks in connection with fairs, carnivals, or other celebrations. In such cases parties in charge of such exhibitions shall be held strictly responsible for any damage to persons or properties resulting from the use of fireworks so used. Fireworks being held in storage for such exhibitions must be kept in a closed wooden box, or tarpaulin, until they are to be used, provided further that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit any wholesaler, dealer, or jobber to sell at wholesale such fireworks as are permitted to be used by this act or the sale of fireworks to be shipped directly out of the state."
